

2007 Grad Student Fall Workshop Series

Friday, October 5	Noon ~ 1 p.m.* EMU Maple Rm.	Campus Services Showcase Find out everything you need to know about some key campus resources. Representatives from Academic Learning Services, Career Center, Center for Family Therapy, Counseling & Testing Center, and Work & Family Services will answer your questions and provide info.
Friday, October 12	Noon ~ 1 p.m.* EMU Maple Rm.	Speed Reading Tips for Graduate Students Don't miss these useful tips on how to read faster and improve your concentration. Amy Nuetzman, the Interim Assistant Director of Academic Learning Services, presents.
Thursday, October 18	Noon ~1:30 p.m.* EMU Maple Rm.	Using the Library Effectively, from A to Z Ann Zeidman-Karpinski, UO Libraries, will discuss the effective use of search engines and our libraries' resources as well as how to stay on top of information through wikis, RSS feeds, blogs, alerts, etc.
Friday, October 19	Noon ~ 1 p.m.* EMU Maple Rm.	CV Writing and Revising Kristi Lodge, UO Career Center, will spend time helping graduate students write and revise their CV for maximum effectiveness. Résumé revision help for those in professional programs is also available.
Saturday, October 20	10 a.m.~ Noon McKenzie Hall Rm. 240A	Thesis & Dissertation Writing Workshop Wendy Carter will present "TADA! Thesis & Dissertation Accomplished," a comprehensive workshop on managing your time and setting deadlines, writer's block, budgeting, writing the proposal and literature review, preparing for the oral defense, and maintaining a working relationship with your advisor. Relevant UO Graduate School policies will also be covered.
Thursday, October 25	Noon ~ 1 p.m.* EMU Maple Rm.	Diversity-Centered Professional Development & Research This unique professional development workshop will include an introduction to the diversity-centered internship and award opportunities available from the Center on Diversity and Community (CoDaC) as well as information about CoDaC's annual graduate student conference.
Friday, October 26	Noon ~ 1 p.m.* EMU Maple Rm.	EndNote Bibliography & References Program Tutorial Katy Lenn, UO Libraries, will demonstrate the EndNote bibliographic software program, particularly how to create and store citations, organize and retrieve citations; and format footnotes and bibliographies in the software and Microsoft Word.
Friday, November 2	Noon ~1:30 p.m.* EMU Coquille Rm.	Responsible Graduate Research Practices & Policies Lynette Schenkel, in the Office of Responsible Conduct of Research, and Juliana Kyrk, in the Office for Protection of Human Subjects, will discuss the principles in your department for determining authorship on a paper, conflict of interest and/or a conflict of commitment, the differences between possible misconduct in research and possible misunderstandings and UO Research Compliance policies and procedures for graduate students.
Friday, November 9	10 a.m.~ Noon See Graduate School website for location.	Setting Expectations & Resolving Conflict Michigan State University Graduate School's Julie Brockman and Rique Campa will present their widely-used conflict resolution program, giving special attention to the graduate student-faculty advisor relationship.

RSVP: Although walk-ins are welcome, space is limited at the events held in the EMU. You may reserve a seat by sending an e-mail to gradsch@uoregon.edu with "RSVP" in the subject line. In the message, please identify the event(s) you will be attending, your major and level, and any ADA accommodations you need. E-mail reminders will be sent to all who reserve seats. Check the Workshops page of the Graduate School website for updates and details.

Brown-Bag Events: You are welcome to bring your lunch to events that start at noon. Beverages will be provided by the Graduate School.